

Health to serve on the universal standard benefit set committee to recommend a benefit set of services.

I would like to quote from Dr. Beebe's hometown paper, the Brainerd Daily Dispatch:

He has to be one of, if not the most patient, understanding and courteous business/non-business persons I have encountered. . . . During all the years I have dealt with Dr. Beebe, he has never failed in his friendly, courteous and patient manner."

Mr. President, I hope that our Senate colleagues will join me in congratulating one of America's outstanding health care providers. Dr. Beebe has made Minnesota proud and today, Dr. Beebe is making America proud.

REMOVAL OF INJUNCTION OF SECRECY—TREATY DOCUMENT NO. 104-10

Mr. D'AMATO. Mr. President, as in executive session, I ask unanimous consent that the injunction of secrecy be removed from the Investment Treaty with Mongolia (Treaty Document No. 104-10), transmitted to the Senate by the President on June 26, 1995; and the treaty considered as having been read the first time; referred, with accompanying papers, to the Committee on Foreign Relations and ordered to be printed; and ordered that the President's message be printed in the RECORD.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The message of the President is as follows:

To the Senate of the United States:

With a view to receiving the advice and consent of the Senate to ratification, I transmit herewith the Treaty Between the United States of America and Mongolia Concerning the Encouragement and Reciprocal Protection of Investment, with Annex and Protocol, signed at Washington on October 6, 1994. Also transmitted for the information of the Senate is the report of the Department of State with respect to the Treaty, with Annex and Protocol.

The bilateral investment Treaty (BIT) with Mongolia will protect U.S. investors and assist Mongolia in its efforts to develop its economy by creating conditions more favorable for U.S. private investment and thus strengthening the development of the private sector.

The Treaty is fully consistent with U.S. policy toward international and domestic investment. A specific tenet of U.S. policy, reflected in this Treaty, is that U.S. investment abroad and foreign investment in the United States should receive national treatment. Under this Treaty, the Parties also agree to international law standards for expropriation and compensation for expropriation; free transfer of funds associated with investments; freedom of investments from performance requirements; fair, equitable, and most-favored-nation treatment; and the investor's or investment's freedom to choose to resolve disputes with the host government through international arbitration.

I recommend that the Senate consider this Treaty as soon as possible, and give its advice and consent to ratification of the Treaty, with Annex and Protocol, at an early date.

WILLIAM J. CLINTON.

THE WHITE HOUSE, June 26, 1995.
